Integrable equations, geometry and all that

Boris Konopelchenko

An importance of the Veselov-Novikov and modified Veselov-Novikov equations in the theory of integrable deformations of surfaces is discussed. The second part is devoted to the construction and analysis of the hodograph equations and their solutions for the Euler equation for incoherent fluid in curved spaces.