

COMPOSITION OF THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT

FRIEDRICH PUKELSHEIM

The composition of the EP means the allocation of the EP seats between the Member States. There are several restrictions by primary and secondary Union law which make this apportionment problem very particular. The criterion which is most opaque is that representation of the Union citizens is supposed to be degressive, not proportional. The talk reviews the discussions in the EP committee on constitutional affairs, and the methods proposed so far.