The hot spots conjecture with mixed boundary conditions

LAWFORD HATCHER

The hot spots conjecture states that, on bounded Lipschitz domains, second Neumann eigenfunctions of the Laplace operator take their extrema only on the boundary of the domain. We consider an analogous problem with mixed Dirichlet-Neumann boundary conditions. After discussing the relationship between the two problems, we will present some recent results on the latter problem.