

SUSANNA ZIMMERMANN

Maximal algebraic groups of birational maps

An algebraic group can act by birational maps on a variety. If it acts on a surface (resp. threefold), it is contained in a maximal algebraic group acting by birational maps on the same surface (resp. threefold).

I motivate that this no longer holds in dimension four and higher.