

GENERALIZED FAMILIES OF QFTS

T. DANIEL BRENNAN

In this talk, we give a new perspective on continuous families of QFTs. We demonstrate that families of theories with global symmetries can have more refined identifications than one might naively expect. We discuss how these identifications can have structures similar to higher group and non-invertible global symmetries, and discuss their implications and applications.